

SEPTEMBER

WELCOME BACK freshmen and sophomore parents and students!

This is the first in a monthly series of school bulletins you will be receiving via email. The intention of this newsletter is to offer you insight and information regarding important events and opportunities that are available for our students.

If you know anyone who is not currently receiving this bulletin, but would like to, have them forward their email address to alittle@gatewayhs.com, and we will be sure to add their information.

FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORES:

JOIN AN EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITY: Students who are involved in activities (clubs/sports) do better academically and they enjoy high school more. For a list of clubs at Gateway, see your Guidance Counselor.

ACAC: The New Jersey National College Fair will be held at the Atlantic City Convention Center on Thursday, November 12 at 9:00am and from 6:00 to 8:30pm. The college fair is FREE! The program provides opportunities for students and families to meet with representatives from hundreds of colleges and universities. There are also information sessions on financial aid and the college admission process. If you have any questions, please call Susana Makowski 609-896-5042.

PEOPLE TO PEOPLE PROGRAM: The People to People Ambassador Program is accepting nominations for their People to People Leadership Summit. The deadline for applications is September 30, 2008. For more information on the program, visit www.peopletopeople.com.

BABYSITTING TRAINING COURSE: Students ages 11-15 will learn how to combine the knowledge and skills associated with babysitting. The course will be held Friday November 13 and Friday November 20 from 5:00 to 9:00pm at the Gloucester County Institute of Technology. The cost is $69.00 per person.
